Private Law Library.—An extensive and valuable collection of Law Books, embracing United States and State Reports, State Laws, Digests, Indexes, Commentaries, Treatises and a great variety of the most approved elementary works and many scarce and choice volumes, both English and American.

At Private Sale.—Bohn's Libraries, consisting of the standard, scientific, antiquarian, classical, illustra ed and (new) cheap series. These highly popular and valuable publications are offered to the trade in quantilies as well as to individuals in sets, or single copies, as may be desired. By the extensive range of subjects embraced in the several series, they are well adapted either to the libraries of public institutions or the shelves of private collectors. The enterprising publisher, Mr. Henry O. Bohn, of London, is rapidly adding new issues, and from the character of those here-tofore brought out, it may be readily presumed what the subsequent ones will be.

The intest issues received are Taylor's Holy Living and Dying and Lamartine's Genevieve—the former of the Standard Library and the latter of Sohn's sew series; Plate, vol. 3; Cicero's Officis and Kitto's Scripture Lands are expected by an early packet.

Also, Lardner's Lectures on Science and Arta, Ewbank's Hydraniles and Mechanics, Bennett's Double Entry Book-Keeping, &c &c.
